

MORNING APPEAL.

FRIDAY, JUNE 20

ANALYSIS OF THE FREE COINAGE VOTE.

From the six New England States, represented by twelve Republican Senators, there were COINAGE VOTERS five (Rhode Island) not voting. From the three Middle States, represented by two Democratic and four Republican Senators, two Republicans from New York and one Democrat from New Jersey voted against free coinage, while one Democrat from Pennsylvania voted for it, and one Republican (Quay of Pennsylvania) did not vote.

From the seven Northwestern States east of the Missouri River, represented by eleven Republican and three Democratic Senators, there were three Democratic votes for free coinage and seven Republican votes against it, and four Republicans (Davis of Minnesota, Wilson of Iowa, Farwell of Illinois and McMillan of Michigan) did not vote.

From the ten States west of the Missouri River represented by one Democratic and nineteen Republican Senators, fourteen Republicans and one Democrat voted for free coinage and two Republicans (Allen of Washington and Cases of North Dakota) voted against it, with three Republicans (Dolph of Oregon, Stanford of California and Pierce of North Dakota) not voting.

From the sixteen Southern States represented by one Republican and thirty-one Democratic Senators, twenty-two Democrats voted for free coinage, two Democrats (one from Delaware and one from Maryland) voted against it, and seven Democrats and one Republican (Higgins of Delaware) did not vote.

Of the 42 votes cast for free coinage 27 were given by Democrats and 15 by Republicans. Of the 25 votes against it three were given by Democrats and 22 by Republicans. Of the 17 Senators absent or not voting, 7 were Democrats and 10 were Republicans.

Free coinage was carried by a union of 14 Southern Democratic States, with nine Republican trans Missouri States and the State of Indiana.

It is not pleasant to give these figures in a Republican newspaper but they represent the true facts of the case, that the passage of the free coinage bill in the Senate was due to Democratic votes. We will next see how the vote stands in the House. If the Republican party hang back against free coinage in the House as it has done in the Senate, the Republican party will have an up-hill fight on its hands in 1892 that is not pleasant for Republicans to contemplate.

COAST NEWS.

The trial of General H. L. Gordon for assault on murder C. H. Potter, began in the Superior Court at San Jose Tuesday.

Joseph C. Thornton, a young attorney from Logansville, Ind., a graduate of Yale and highly indorsed, committed suicide by hanging at Seattle Tuesday. His action cannot be explained. He was not in want, and was quite prosperous.

Christian Marks now makes affidavit that it was he and not his wife who killed Joseph Von Wyle at Napa, and for which offense Mrs. Marks has just been convicted of manslaughter. Marks has kept silent thinking a jury would not convict a woman. A sensation has followed this confession.

Thirteen "Vegetarian Spiritualists" in one residence at Fullerton, Los Angeles county, Cal., refused to answer questions of the Census Enumerator on the ground that it was "against the dictation of their great spirit to answer questions." Warrants have been issued for the arrests of the entire party.

Several women in different parts of the country have been arrested for refusing to answer the interrogations of the census enumerators. That a woman should be arrested for holding her tongue is indeed something remarkable.
